To whom it may concern

We engaged UNS to set up enhanced IT capabilities for our office, in order to streamline our processes, upgrade our obsolete existing installations and benefit from the latest cutting edge technologies.

UNS provided us with comprehensive and tailor-made solutions which 100% meets the needs of our small but international organization. UNS also provided proactive consultancy as to medium and long term planning.

The fees are absolutely competitive while not comprising on quality.

The service level, reliability and availability of the sales department, technicians and after-sale package absolutely satisfy us.

UNS is surely a serious partner which delivers high performance.

We are delighted to recommend UNS as a true professional provider of individual IT solutions packages .
